Disability Leadership Institute:
Increasing Employment Opportunities for Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders with Disabilities

8:30am – 5pm, May 8, Monday, 2006
at the TAPA Conference Room, Hilton Hawaii Village Beach Resort & Spa
2005 Kalani Road, Honolulu, HI

Opening Remarks: Dr. Robert A. Stoddten, Principal Investigator, National Technical Assistance Center for Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders with Disabilities

Keynote Speakers:
- Senator Daniel Inouye [invited],
- Olegario Cantos VII (Special Counsel to the Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division, U.S. Department of Justice)
- Elaine Chao, Assistant Secretary, U.S. Dept. of Labor [invited],
- Representatives from national, local (Hawaii), and Pacific Regional areas.

Purpose:
- To share the best practices, employment success stories, and tools developed by NTAC-AAPI over the past four years, and
- To develop action plans to carry out NTAC-AAPI’s mission beyond the current project period, ending in September 2006.
The participants will contribute to forward thinking goal areas and innovative ways to reach those goals.

Who Should Attend:
This Leadership Institute is being held in conjunction with the Federal Asian Pacific American Council (FAPAC)’s 21st Annual National Leadership Training Conference, scheduled for May 8-12, 2006. FAPAC participants and others, including employers from all government departments, human resource personnel from private businesses and organizations, personnel from vocational rehabilitation and disability support programs, and persons with disabilities are all encouraged to take advantage of this unique opportunity.

Intended Outcomes:
- Documentation of recommendations for policy makers; and
- Greater commitment through action plans developed by the participants for increasing employment outcomes of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders with disabilities.

To register online, go to: www.ntac.hawaii.edu

There is no registration fee, but participants must be registered by April 15 for lunch count. Complete the registration form and submit to: Joeun Ham at joeun@hawaii.edu or fax 808-956-7878.

You may earn approximately 8 CEUs (Continuing Education Units) by attending the Institute at the Hilton Hotel or online. Please contact James Brightman at james.brightman@cds.hawaii.edu or 808-956-3648 for more information.